Colon and Semi-Colon Practice

- 1) The word "macro" indicates large routines; the word "micro" indicates small routines.
- 2) The nurse gave this explanation: the patient was distracted by a personal crisis when he threw the food on the wall.
- 3) Although the project is late, we are optimistic; and we will continue to do everything we can to get back on track.
- 4) We have always encouraged employee teams in the hospital athletic leagues; however, under the present circumstances we're unable to supply funds for uniforms.
- 5) Good letters have at least three qualities: clarity, friendliness, and conciseness.
- 6) There are many bits of evidence that CAHEP students like to read. For example: they are enthusiastic about literature circles.
- 7) Our doctors will be at the hospital next week; they will call you for an appointment.
